

Awards: Stars of the week:

Diamond: Year 6 for showing amazing resilience and responsibility at PGL. They pushed themselves out of their comfort zones.

Sapphire: Dash for contributing well to class discussions across all subjects, especially grammar in English. Joanna for fully applying herself to her writing and creating an interesting twist to her story.

Emerald: Clara for an excellent piece of independent writing. Penelope for taking responsibility for her own learning and working through break to secure her understanding of fractions.

Topaz: Audrey and Lily for their excellent sentences using accurate punctuation and conjunctions.

Garnet: Cassian for working with greater resilience and perseverance. Judah for his good contributions in our humanities lesson about transport from the past and present.

Prayer

Almighty God,
We give thanks for everyone in Your world.
Though we may not always agree, we are all your children,
and your love is for all.
When they need our truth, we pray to you,
reveal to them honestly what is right about us,
and show them the heart of the matter with love and compassion.

Amen

This half term we are learning about:

Year 6 PGL :

On Monday, we departed to PGL at Marchant's Hill and had a great time with many different activities. There were a few outside activities and a few inside, such as fencing which took place indoors. Most of the activities were outside however such as Abseiling or Trapeze, zipline but raft building got cancelled due to a strong thunderstorm. The food was good, the flavoured water there was heavenly, there was either lemon-lime water or peach-raspberry water or all of them mixed together in an option called mix-it-up.

Written by Hunter and Taylor

Abseiling

"It was a leap of faith. The way you did it was by attaching a metal object to your harness and forming an L shape while walking down backwards." Alex

Archery

"It was hard to hit the target but the games were really fun." Henry P

Campfire

"I loved the campfire because we learnt new songs and the marshmallows were so good. We got extra marshmallows after we all sang the banana song." Joshua

Fencing

"Fencing was fun we started off with a game where we needed to take each other's gloves and as you could probably guess that got competitive then we played rats and rabbits where we scattered around like headless chickens." Thalia

Food

"The food was amazing! At first it seemed okay but after the first dinner the food was unbelievably delicious and I kept going back for more!" Grace

Rifle Shooting

"The rifle shooting was super fun and challenging it was so interactive especially during the team competition" Eleanor

Trapeze

"It was scary, but exhilarating when you were in the air" Eddie
